

Acknowledgements

The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom would like to extend our warmest thanks and appreciation to all of those who supported and contributed to the Model Nuclear Inventory. Special thanks goes to Alexandra Sundberg who compiled most of the information contained in the Non-Nuclear Weapon State chapters, as well as to AdSpace, Ink. which printed the report.

Supporters and contributors to this project include: Dulce Fernandes of the Global Resource Action Center on the Environment (US), Monika Szymurska of Abolition 2000, Nigel Chamberlain of the British-American Security Information Council (UK), Sarah Estabrooks of Project Ploughshares (Canada), Andreas Persbo of the Verification Research, Training and Information Centre (UK), Philip White of Citizens' Nuclear Information Center (Japan), David Heller of For Mother Earth (Belgium), Regina Hagen of International Network of Engineers and Scientists against Proliferation (Germany), Dominique Lalanne of Stop Essais (France), Ralph Hutchinson of Oak Ridge Environmental Peace Alliance (US), Arjun Makhijani and Lisa Ledwidge of Institute for Energy and Environmental Research (US), Beverly DeLong of the Canadian Network for the Abolition of Nuclear Weapons (Canada), Judy Blyth and Dimity Hawkins of the Medical Association for the Prevention of War (Australia), Swedish Peace and Arbitration Society (Sweden), Swedish Peace Council (Sweden), Emma King (Australia), Felicity Hill (Sweden), Kieran Longridge and James Courtney of Greenpeace (Australia), John Hallam and Jim Green of Friends of the Earth (Australia), Debbie Grisdale of Physicists for Global Survival (Canada), Irene Gale of Australian Peace Committee (Australia), Alistair Millar of Fourth Freedom Forum (US), Pavel Podvig of the Center for Arms Control, Energy, and Environmental Studies (Russia), and Martin Butcher of Physicians for Social Responsibility (US).

Funding for this report was made possible by the Arsenault Foundation and the Canadian Department for Foreign Affairs.

(c) 2005 Reaching Critical Will
Women's International League for Peace and Freedom