Stories From Atomic Bomb Survivors: Hibakusha Speak

New York, NY. Peace Action Manhattan invites you to hear first-hand accounts of the horrific humanitarian consequences of the use of nuclear weapons from survivors of the atomic bomb blasts over Hiroshima and Nagasaki. The Hibakusha are from the organization Hydankyo, the Japan Confederation of A- and H-Bomb Sufferers Organizations.

Wednesday, April 30 at 7:00 pm
Goddard Riverside Community Center
88th Street & Columbus Ave.

It is imperative that the Hibakusha's stories continue to be told in order to remind us all why we can never stop working for nuclear disarmament until these weapons of mass destruction are eliminated forever. Please join us and spread the word. Thank you.

The event is brought to you by Peace Action Manhattan and is FREE. There will be light refreshments served.

For questions or to RSVP, please contact Alicia Godsberg at 646-723-1749 or by email at alicia@panys.org.
