ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

DR. KATHLEEN SULLIVAN is a nuclear researcher, community activist and founder of Engaged Democracy for the Nuclear Age.

MR. ICCHO ITOH is serving his second term as Mayor of Nagasaki. Before his election in 1995, he served three terms in the Nagasaki Prefectural Assembly and two terms in the City Council.

DR. DANIEL ELLSBERG is a well-known policy analyst and former nuclear war planner for the U.S. Department of Defense. He achieved fame and notoriety during the Vietnam war for releasing the “Pentagon Papers” to the American news media.

MS. LISBETH GRONLUND is a staff scientist with the Union of Concerned Scientists.

MR. ACHIN VANAIK is an Indian journalist, author, and analyst. His latest book, co-authored with Praful Bidwai, is South Asia on a Short Fuse.

MR. RICHARD SALVADOR is a networker with the Pacific Islands Association of NGOs (PIANO), and serves on the Coordinating Committee of the Abolition 2000 Global Network to Eliminate Nuclear Weapons.

MR. WILLIAM PEDEN is a nuclear disarmament campaigner with Greenpeace International.

MR. JONATHAN SCHELL is a widely published author. His latest book is The Gift of Time: The Case for Abolishing Nuclear Weapons Now. His previous works include The Fate of the Earth.

MR. PETER WEISS is President of the International Association of Lawyers Against Nuclear Arms.

MS. ALICE SLATER is Executive Director of Global Resource Action Center for the Environment (GRACE), and a founding member of the Abolition 2000 Global Network to Eliminate Nuclear Weapons.

DR. ALEXEY YABLOKOV is Co-Chairman of the Social Ecological Union, President of the Center for Russian Environmental Policy, and Deputy Chair of the Council on Ecological Problems of the Russian Academy of Sciences. He has served as Chairman of the Environmental Policy Council to the President of the Russian Federation.

MS. JACQUI KATONA is Executive Officer for the Gundjehmi Aboriginal Corporation, the representative body for the Mirrar people who live in Kakadu National Park, site of the proposed Jabiluka uranium mine. She is the recipient of the Goldman Environmental Prize and other international awards.

Dr. LEV FEOKTISTOVOV is a member of the Russian Academy of Sciences, winner of the Lenin Prize, and an active member of the Pugwash movement. He spent 25 years designing and developing Soviet nuclear arms. He is the author of the 1999 publication Nukes Are Not Forever.

Dr. ANDREAS TOUPADAKIS is a former nuclear chemist at the Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory. He resigned his position on January 31 of this year.

Adm. RAMU RAMDAS retired as Chief of the Indian Naval Staff in 1993, and thereafter has engaged himself fully in anti-nuclear and peace initiatives. He is Chairman of the Indian chapter of the Pakistan-Indian People’s Forum for Peace and Democracy, and serves on the International Advisory Board of the Hague Appeal for Peace.

58