Statement by Luxembourg on behalf of the European Union

The European Union expresses concern that time is running out for substantive issues.

The European Union remains committed to a substantive outcome of the Conference.

The European Union appeals to all delegations to reach a quick solution of the procedural issues.

The European Union welcomes the proposal of the President and supports his efforts to reach consensus on that basis.